“ mike sasser was an all round nice guy. he was referred to as pa pa by some of his grandchildren. he was willing to have a tea party with his granddaughter and soon afterward was on you tube figuring out how to repair the washing machine. he was an easy person to like right away. i am thankful that my nephew had such a great father in law.

“ Mr. Mike was so influential in my childhood. Growing up as friends of his daughter, Sharon, he and his beautiful wife opened their home to a bunch of us girls! They would spend time with us, laugh with us, listen to our silly stories, take us on little adventures, cook for us, and show us support. His laugh was so sweet and contagious...along with his smile! I can picture him now, sitting on the recliner with his dog- as a bunch of us ran around the house. He taught us girls how to have a good work ethic, to not complain, to be grateful, and to do all of this with a sweet and kind heart.

“ Mike and Linda were part of the Charleston dart crowd that became like family. There was never a dull moment with Mike around. We traveled a lot of miles and it was always a joy to see our buddies again.

Mike and Linda gave much of themselves building a family of some really great kids that turned into fine adults. God bless all and Mike...I'll wear one of our Aloha shirts in your honor. Everytime I wear one...its for you buddy!!
