“ You were my first love, husband, and father to our daughter. We had lots of up's and some downs but we always remained civil and friends for our daughter. You are Michael Smith and not many can handle you full time and to the ones who tried may God bless you. I remember I was 17 when I first met you and good lord you were the most smart ass, arrogant man I had ever met. I couldn't stand you bc you always had something to say. We hung out at Lunker Lane and went to the river to play volleyball on the weekends. One Saturday night we all came to your house on Lunker Lane after the Riverfront and I walked to my car to go home and went to close my door and there you were, you got me out the car and kissed me and then I fell in love. We stayed together almost 10 years. Then we went separate ways and then in 2017 when things got rough for me and Maxie you came and moved in with us as a roommate to help out bc you do have a big heart. We still love you and will miss you so much. Rest In Peace Mic.
