

Nanetta G. Johnson

December 23, 1939 - April 22, 2017

Nanetta “Nan” Gingerich Johnson, 77, of Griffin, Georgia, passed away peacefully, April 22, 2017, as she succumbed to cancer. She was born December 23, 1939 in Stuttgart, Arkansas. She was a longtime resident of Central Georgia, Lake Sinclair and Sun City Peachtree. Nan had a real zest for life having retired from the State of Georgia, as a Parole Officer, to travel the world. Her greatest passion was dancing and she was a member of the dance troupe, “The Paris Dancers”.

She is survived by her sons Emile "Red" Barnes III (Michele) of Crawfordville & Michael William Barnes (Denise Burdick) of Panacea, 3 grandchildren and 1 great grandchild.

Mrs. Johnson will be donated to the Anatomical Board of the State of Florida per her request. Whole body donation significantly impacts advancements in medical research, development and education every day. Donation is essential to the advancement of medicine, contributing to emergency medical personnel and advanced physician training, disease study, and the development of assistive medical devices and less invasive patient surgical treatments.

A Memorial Service will be held at St. George's Episcopal Church in Griffin, Georgia on May 11th at 10:00 am. In lieu of flowers, to help fulfill her wishes, donations may be made to “Winship Cancer Institute” at Emory University School of Medicine in Atlanta, Georgia 30322. (404-727-6242).

Arrangements are under the care of Skip Young with Family Funeral Home & Cremation Services. 850-926-5919 Familyfhc.com

“ I will miss Nan and her talent as a dancer. As her teacher in Sun City Peachtree I enjoyed her enthusiasm and joy in participating in learning our many dances and performing in our annual Follies. She was a trooper, rest in peace dear Nan!
