A beautiful and loving tribute to this precious lady....so much more to me than my aunt....she was my big sister. I am so thankful that we shared a true and deep love for each other that I will cherish forever. Although we did not get the chance to spend the time together we planned because of the miles between us, our many, many phone calls kept us close. I miss her so much. I know she is celebrating in her heavenly home with all the angels who went before her. We, too, will spend that wonderful time together one day that could not happen on this earth. That will be a glorious time....I love you so much.

“ My precious Aunt NoNo. Jason gave her that name when he was about 3 years old and we would go over to visit her. It stuck and I called her NoNo from that time on. She and I spent a lot of wonderful times together and she called me her other daughter. She treated me like her daughter and I loved her so very much. She brought me through some very dark times over the past 20 years since my mama passed. She had so much wisdom and I loved that she was so real. She told it like she saw it whether you liked it or not. I am so thankful for all the beautiful memories we shared and will miss her everyday. God please comfort her children Diane, Kenny, Michelle and Dawn. Her family was the most important thing to her in her life. Jamie was like a son and she was like his mama. He loved and treated her just like he would have his own. God lift Jamie up and bless him for always being there for her.

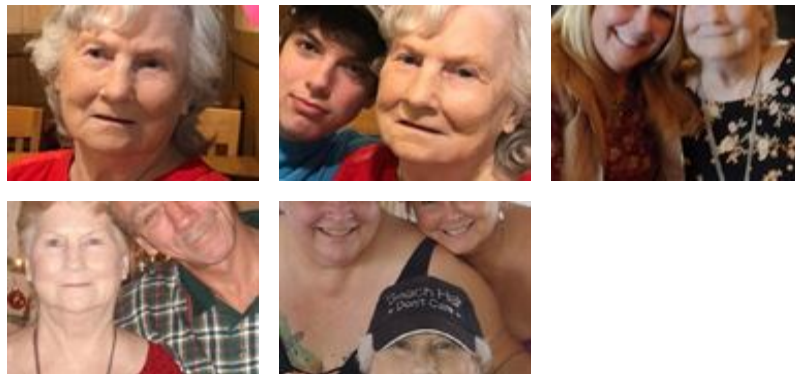

Rest in peace my beautiful Aunt NoNo.
