“ Loved you like a sister. You and i were able to share everything together....the good and the bad. I know you are now whole again without your earthly body that so hindered you. Will miss you terribly but know I will be reunited with you soon.

“ In 1964 out two families were camped in Louisiana. We were near NO. When a swarm of mosquitoes just about carried us all off. We were looking for the dry prairies of the West to get rid of those pest. Our boys and Janna didn't seem to make a difference. They swam anyway. What a great family adventure with Ned and you. I wish I could see you in that "heavenly place"...I will before long.
