

Patricia Reinhard Whittaker

February 22, 1959 - September 9, 2021

Patricia Ann Reinhard Whittaker, 62, of Crawfordville, died Thursday, September 9, 2021. Patricia was a Registered Nurse and was the Pact Manager/Mental Health Supervisor at the Tallahassee V A Clinic. She was formally the Psychiatric Nurse Supervisor at FSU Wellness Center. Patricia graduated from the School of Nursing at the Medical School of Georgia.

She was born in Harrisburg Pennsylvania and later moved to Warner Robins, GA with her parents Robert and Dorothy Reinhard. She met and married her first husband, Ronald Severs, and had two children, Brad and Colleen. Soon after they moved to Okinawa, Japan. She spent a lot of time enjoying the ocean and diving. She was fascinated with marine life and enjoyed learning about the Japanese culture.

Several years later she met her late husband, Roy Francis Unger. They moved to Tallahassee, FL and later to Crawfordville, FL to continue to raise Brad and Colleen. She enjoyed family vacations to Disney, going to the beach, cruising, and anywhere tropical.

After Roy's death Patricia discovered a love for motorcycles and started to enjoy the outdoors again with an RV and boating. She truly loved camping and riding around on her golfcart. She then met her husband, whom is now deceased, Raymond Hubbird. Together they enjoyed the outdoors and relaxing.

She is survived by her beloved husband, Jim Whittaker. Together they continued to enjoy the camping life. She was a member of the Wakulla Moose Lodge and the Cowboy Country Church.

Other survivors include her daughter, Colleen Nicole Layne, her husband B.J, and their son Hudson. Her son Bradford James Severs and his wife Sarah and their children Aidan, Charlotte, and Elliot.

Her heart was always in Georgia and she never missed a Georgia Bulldog football game. She loved to travel and has been all over the world. She was also a true Disney and Mickey Mouse Fan. She was a wonderful cook, hostess and loved to entertain. She made the holidays magical and loved her family and friends dearly.

Patricia will be buried at the Tallahassee National Cemetery.

Skip and Trey Young are assisting the family with arrangements.
