“ Aunt Peggy was a kind and gentle woman. My mom, her sister Dorothy loved Peggy and told me of their childhood running through the hills of Kentucky. My mom said that Peggy was the best buddy for exploring the beautiful hills that they both loved until the end. They would get up early and make their way to their grandparents, the Kisers. There were detective magazines that the girls would read and talk about for hours. The chickens that their grandmother raised was another pleasant distraction for them. My mom passed away in March and they're reunited again in heaven and I am sure they are planning an adventure.

“ Aunt Peggy was so beautiful inside and out. I loved her smile. Her eyes would light up when she smiled. We all will miss her very much. I'm glad we were able to spend some time with her when we did. She will be dearly missed by her family, myself, her brother and her two living sisters. We are praying for Maryanne and sending our love during this difficult loss. We love you Aunt Peggy. ❤️
