“ The most wonderful memory I have of my cousin Phillip is how much he loved and took such good care of his mother, my precious Aunt Lucille. He had such a good heart and a warm smile that greeted anyone that came to see Aunt Lucille or him. I will never forget Phillip and I sitting in the rocking chairs on Aunt Lucille's front porch enjoying long conversations about life. He was more than a cousin, he was a true friend. I can still hear him playing his guitar and singing Go Rest High On The Mountain and On The Wings of A Snow White Dove. He was loved by all and will be missed by everyone.
