“ I've known Randy and family a very long time. Randy was a creative cake decorator that made the most attractive cakes that made the men folk drool. Randy was a outstanding cook when his family owned and operated the IGA in CRAWFORDVILLE. Randys mama Ms. Fedorak was a very hard worker just like my mama Tenny Spears was all her life. Randy always was so helpful and friendly to all of e came in contact with. Talk for hours over the phone to cheer each other up. The one person that he looked up to and loved with all his heart was his mama. He worried so much about heri. I'm really sad to hear and see if Randy's death. He always said I WONDER WHAT IT FEELS LIKE TO FLY UP TO HEAVEN. LOVE AND MISS YIU BUDDY.
