

Rilda Aileen Posey

September 6, 1935 - April 16, 2026

Rilda Aileen Posey, age 90, of Crawfordville, passed away peacefully on April 16, 2026. She had been a beloved resident of Crawfordville for more than 65 years.

Aileen was a devoted mother who took advantage of every opportunity to help her children grow and experience life-building activities. Aileen nurtured her children and tended to each child's special needs making them wholesome and loving adults. When her children were raised and successfully on their own, she and Bobby enjoyed each other by traveling the US and abroad. She was born on a potato farm in Southwest Idaho where she rode horses and was member of the horseback-riding club representing them in queen pageants at various rodeos. She took ballet and tap-dancing lessons and played the accordion--once played on the streets with two others for Boise Music Week. In grade school and high school, she played sports—basketball and softball. She loved roller skating and ice skating and met her husband Bobby C. Posey at the Nampa Roller Drome.

Aileen will be lovingly remembered by her children: Larry (Shelly), Steve (Brenda), Terry (Beth Anne) and Karen (Donnie); and grandchildren David (Ashley), Eric (Brittney), Keith (Kerri), Chad (Erin), Haley (Laura), Ethan (Katelyn), Hannah (Trey) and Jack (Amber); her sister, Connie, and nephew Nicholas Christie; seventeen great-grandchildren; and two great-great-grandchildren. She is loved and remembered by many nephews and nieces. She was preceded in death by her husband, Bobby C. Posey, her parents, and three brothers.
