

Robert Lee Sullivan "Bob"

August 24, 1949 - December 18, 2015

Robert Lee Sullivan "Bob", 66, of Carrabelle, died Friday, December 18, 2015 at Tallahassee Memorial. His wife Virginia and other family members were by his side. He will be remembered by all for his fun loving ways. Bob and Virginia moved to Carrabelle 12 years ago to enjoy his retirement. He was an electrician for 20 years and worked for Weston Trawick Electrical Contractors. He was very adventurous; loved deer hunting, canoeing, kayaking, boating, camping, hiking, gardening and wood working. Bob spent many years camping and hunting with Tommy Dyer in Tate's Hell on the Apalachicola River and many years camping with his 2 sons, Troy & Chad, and their families at Easter. He and his close friend Jack kayaked rivers and springs in Florida. He and his wife Virginia, were proud owners of a 1952 Airstream Caravan which he remodeled and traveled to many destinations in Florida. He loved nature and loved being outdoors. He snorkeled reefs in the British Virgin Islands, Cayman Islands, Bahamas, the 2nd largest reef in Belize to the small reefs in the Florida Keys. Bob truly refined the fine art of "piddling". He was always bringing home driftwood, cedar and anything that he could create a new masterpiece with. He created many wood working designs for the outdoors and indoors. He enjoyed working in the yard and created a beautiful shade garden. Bob enjoyed his life and would say to everyone, take your time and don't always be in a hurry, "stop and smell the roses". Bob loved his 2 "hairy" friends Brandy & Sandy. He will be remembered by everyone for his commitment to his family and friends and his love for his best friend Virginia.

He is survived by his wife of 40 years Virginia, sons Troy Sullivan (Nicole) & Chad Sullivan (Allison), mother Ruby Sullivan, brother Bill Sullivan (Dale), brother in law Ken Johnson (David), 8 grandchildren Garric C. “ Dear Bob - My entire life it's only ever been you and Gin Gin together forever as one. Things are going to be different without your physical presence; however, knowing your spirit is always present will give us all the strength to continue special, happy times together. Thank you for the memories. Thank you for caring for me. Thank you and Gin Gin for helping me with Dustin when he was little. Though such a small symbol, I light this candle in honor of you. Bob, I love you. - Kimberly

“ I have many memories of Bob, starting in 1971. Each time our paths crossed, we renewed our friendship with a hug. I was at his wedding to Virginia, he attended mine.... and so it goes. My most favorite thoughts recall Bob and his faithful friend "Zohar" ...a prince of a dog and Bob's constant companion. It is a comfort to know they are together again.

We love you, Virginia, you are in our prayers.

“ My biggest memory of Bob is when he and Virginia married 40 years ago in the gardens of the Lemoyne Art Fondation located on Gadsden St in Tallahassee. They threw rice on Bob and I and then their immediate friends went with them to the Hotel for their honeymoon. My second favorite would be all of Bobs deer hunting excursions. The only thing he ever brought back were empty turtle shells. It either was that his heart would not let him shoot anything or that he had a strange idea of what a deer looked like. I will miss him

There are so many wonderful memories of Bob. He was so caring and always piddling around making or doing something. We had so much fun boating on the Apalachicola river. That's where Bob and Virginia taught me to snorkel. We would anchor and float around in the water and walk around looking for dried up driftwood for Bob. Camping with Virginia and Bob at Easter at one of the Florida State Parks. I would stay with Bob and Virginia in their 1952 vintage airstream. His sons and their wives, and the grandkids camped around us. We put our chairs around a big campfire and told stories. It was so much fun. Bob was a laid back kind of a guy. Never in a hurry. He was always the last one to get in the car. I will miss him so much but know he is in a better place. Everyone enjoyed Bobs company and talking about all his adventures. He loved his pets. It was always Bob and Virginia. They were together everywhere they went. You never saw one without the other. May he Rest in Peace.
