PS

“ My deepest condolences and apologies for finding this so late. I remember Ed Sr (I was a friend of Eddie Jr) trying to talk me into selling my Camaro for a demolition derby car. I wish I had more specific memories than that, but it's been so long since I've been back home.

“ *Sweet memories of a brother who loved deeply. Many of my favorite childhood memories revolve around Ed. He threw me from the little red wagon at least a million times, taught me to drive and patiently backed the car out of the ditch when I ran it there, and always brought me a sweet gift when he came home from the military. I still have my silky yellow stuffed cat and pagoda necklace. I will miss my big brother and love him forever.
Love, your one and only (sister),
Sherry*
