

Ruth Iona Ditmore Craig

November 24, 1942 - February 4, 2020

Ruth Iona Ditmore Craig, 77, of Tallahassee, passed away February 4, 2020. She was born in St. Petersburg, Florida on November 24, 1942, moved to Tallahassee in 1976, in 1986 she moved to San Diego, California and back to Tallahassee in 2005. Ruth lived in the beauty of the world around her and wanted others to share that beauty. She celebrated her life everyday with her family; was an avid reader, member of the Capital City Cyclist and was a Peer Counselor, where she listened with understanding and a heart full of love. Survivors include her husband of 46 years Robert Craig, daughters Tracy Suber & Dawn Collins Davis (Jim Hyde), granddaughters Morgan Parker (Brian) & Emily Collins Davis and great granddaughter Rheese Parker. A Celebration of Life will be held at a later date. Skip & Trey Young are assisting the family with their arrangements.

“ I remember Ruth and her family visiting our family many times in Young Harris, GA. We are related. Her Grandmother, Mable Ditmore's mother and my grandma were sister's, This is on the Bryson side of the family.

So sorry to learn of her passing.

I wish I had found her before her passing.

God Bless

Hi Linda —

Thank you for your note of condolence. I just happened to see your sympathy post this morning (August 2022). Mabel Ditmore Nix was Mom's paternal aunt (sister to Mom's dad Paul Edward Ditmore). Venia Bryson and Francis Ditmore were Mom's paternal grandparents.

Mom was very close to her Aunt Mabel. When she attended the University of Tennessee, she stayed with or visited Mabel often. Mabel always sent birthday cards to my sister and me when we were growing up. (I still recall her address from memory from writing all the thank you notes!)

Mom didn't keep in close touch with her cousins as she grew older. I recall my grandfather's brothers and his other sister (Frank, Roy, and Hazel) and would recognize the names of some of Mom's Ditmore cousins from Tennessee and St. Petersburg, Florida. But sadly, I don't remember hearing about Bryson cousins in Georgia. I have a few old photos of my great-grandmother but grew up hearing very little (really nothing) about her siblings or the Bryson family history.

If you are interested in sharing some Bryson family history, I'm interested in learning more. :-)

*Best regards,
Tracy*
