A fabulous person. A fantastic mother. A beautiful woman. A wonderful friend and wife. God now holds her in the palm of His hand without pain or suffering. May the Eternal Light of Christ shine upon her and upon all of the faithfully departed. Your friend and husband Warren.

And Paula Johnson did a fantastic job in the video production and the entire celebration of Sharlene's life. Thank you Paula, Skip, and the entire Family Funeral Home

Warren, this is beautiful! I cried and cried. I treasure the "Tanner investigates..." books that she wrote. She was so loving and caring, a beautiful, smart and funny woman. I will miss her greatly; we never seemed to have enough time together.

Sharlene had more energy and zest for life than anyone I've ever known. She taught us all how to fight and be brave in the midst of troubles and pain and to do it with dignity and grace. She left us with a lifetime of wonderful memories. I will miss my big sister more than I can possibly express. I will love you always Chuckie! Your (little sister) Tina

“ Hello, Something sparked my memory of Sharlene and I looked her up. We knew each other when our dad's were stationed at Laughlin AFB, late 60's. In the 70's we moved to Winter Haven Florida and she moved to Crawfordville, Florida. On my 18th birthday, I flew up to spend the weekend with her. We had fun! Then she and Bruce Mattox, who also lived at Laughlin, came to visit me. We kept in touch until the mid 80's. I so wish i had looked her up sooner. So very sad to hear she has passed away. “ I will always remember and treasure my memories of working with Sharlene over the years. Her friendship, encouragement, her belief and trust in me to bring her ideas to life have most definitely made me a better designer and a better person. She will always have a special place in my heart and I will never forget her and all she's done for me through the years. Much love to Warren and the whole family from me and Mr. Vlad. Sharlene, you are one in a million and I love you my friend.

“ The very first time I met her we were trying to plan a wedding..because transfer date from boot camp to assignment for groom kept changing, we consulted often...until we ran smack dab into a date already reserved. She was a lovely person, so patient and understanding and had some wonderful suggestions. What a sad loss for our community....Jo Reynolds
