We can not express our heartfelt sympathy enough to all of you. Sheila was one of the kindest people I know, while also being a bit of a firecracker! She was always doing things for other people and she never EVER stopped talking about her family, and her friend Renee. Madison will ALWAYS be a part of our family and please don't ever hesitate to call us with ANYthing she needs. Love, Kathy, Josh and Grace

I'm so heartbroken to learn of Sheila's sudden passing. I'm so sorry. It's been years since we spoke, but Sheila, her mama, Savoia and sister Mary are like family. We were all scrappy kids and teens together. My heart breaks for all of you. She was a special soul and I know she was adored by her family. So much love to you all
