“ Shellie and Edie have been great neighbors. He took me fishing numerous times when we first moved to Carrabelle over 20 years ago. Showed me how to "walk the dog" and get those fish to "explode" on the lure. My favorite form of fishing ever since. He also looked out for my lawn and visited with me when I broke my wrist and was out of commission for a couple months many years ago. He always said if I ever need anything, whatever is his, is mine. I will miss him and always think of him when I bring in that next fish! Rest in peace Shellie. Your neighbors, Dan & Isolde.
