

Steven Carl Donoho

February 15, 1983 - September 10, 2025

Steven Carl Donoho, age 42, passed away on September 10, 2025, in Tallahassee, Florida. Born on February 15, 1983, in Decatur, Illinois, Steven was a free spirit who lived life on his own terms and brought laughter, creativity, and warmth to everyone who knew him.

Steven had a remarkable talent for art—he was a gifted illustrator with a natural ability to bring imagination to life through his drawings. He also had a knack for building and creating with his hands; if something could be made, fixed, or reimaged, Steven was the one to do it. His humor and vibrant personality left lasting impressions wherever he went.

He is survived by his loving mother, Deborah Edgecomb (Thomas); his brother, Lawton Johnson (Amber); his sister, Crystal Beeler (Shawn); and his nieces: Alexis, Alivia, and Brianna. Steven's memory will live on in their hearts and in the many lives he touched with his creativity and joy. Steven will be remembered for his laughter, his art, his spirit, and the way he embraced life fully and authentically.

A celebration of life will be announced at a later time.

“ When I think of Steven I get instant nostalgia that brings me back to childhood. Some of my best memories are of being at my Aunt Debbie's house and seeing my cousins. Steven always destroyed everyone at tetherball, and we'd all hang out in his old bus. I recall hot summer days playing outside in the water hose or sprinkler, digging around in the sand dunes near his house, and walking dirt roads picking black berries. We were supposed to be getting enough for Aunt Debbie to make a pie, but we usually ate them before we got back. Life happened and Steven and I had only spoken a few times as adults, discussing our families and struggles. I'll always remember his sense of humor, as he could always make light of any situation. For me, his death is a reminder to keep in touch with those who you share fond memories with, a reminder of the good times, when life was simpler, and our biggest worry was when supper would be ready. I'll always remember Steven as that bright eyed kid, ready to take on life and the world. I regret not making more time in my life to check in on him. I know he is at peace with God now, and no longer has any pain, stress or burdens. May he rest in peace.

“ I was Lucky enough to meet Steven 4 years ago. I said I would never fall in love again unless someone walked into my house and made me fall in love with them. And on 6/3/21, my sister and her friend came over and brought Steven with them. He was so kind and fun, and funny and I smiled all the time being around him. He was so talented and gifted and could build anything! I am grateful for the time I had with him and just wish I would've met him sooner and had more time with him. He was my whole world. I'm heartbroken but am so happy for the memories I have with him. I will love him forever. My condolences to his family and everyone that knew him during this very difficult time.
