“ I met sweet Peewee (or as I called him Pete) through a mutual friend and my husband. They were all good friends and he soon become a friend to me too! Over the years we had lots of good times. He was at our wedding, help us move into our new home, came to the hospital to see our daughter Kylie after she was born, he laid floors in our house, and in my parents house. I remember the day he told us he was going to be a daddy. He was so proud. While we didn't get to see him regularly anymore, no matter the time that went by we could all pick up where we left off. Peewee was a good friend with a kind heart! Every time you saw him, he asked how everyone was doing and always had a hug for ya. RIP sweet friend! Prayers to you all!
