“ I guess I am still in shock....I am so very sorry to hear Susie is gone....I have some wild n crazy memories from our lives back in Roswell in the 60's. Watching Ronnie play baseball, cruising Main (Trudy drove) the 1960 (I think) Falcon, the night Bea pierced our ears and I passed out-Sharan laffed so hard she wet her pants. and Trudy-having to put up with our siliness cos she was the oldest and Bea put her in charge. What a life-so long ago- not a care in the world, we had so much fun. I talked to Susie when Sharan died..I guess that was the last time we spoke. Susie was an amazing and talented friend....
