

Tamara Lynn Swift

June 4, 1964 - December 19, 2022

Tamara Lynn Swift, 58, of Crawfordville, passed away on December 19, 2022.

Tamara was an Outage Specialist at Foley Paper Mill in Perry, Florida, where she worked with her husband. When they first met and were married Joe told Tami, he would take her around the world. After they were married and together for a while, she told everyone, she didn't know she would have to work as she went around the world.

Tami started out doing Industrial work as a Fire Watch in the late 1980's. She and Joe met in Savannah, Georgia, in 1994 at a Paper Mill. Tami worked all aspects of the Industrial Careers and made it into Maintenance Planning where she shined the most. She had never been as happy as she was while she was planning her work and as her contractors or Maintenance guys completed what she had planned. There was something about her that Joe could not understand; it was like he had known her all of his life. They were together from the time they met, and enjoyed 29 years of life together, most of which had been 24 hours a day 7 days week. They knew that God had put them together and thanked Him for it daily. They traveled the world and not one time did she complain, when she knew they were going to move; she just started packing, to make sure everything was just right. Tami always picked the best house and the best things to put in their home. She always said, if we ever need to live in a tent again I'll be fine with that as long as we are together. So the tent stayed in the closet just in case. Note from Joe: I love you Tami and always will be by your side.

She is survived by her husband, Joseph Malone Swift; mother, Mary Alice Henry; son, Easten Corey (Curtis) Henry and wife Brooke; sisters, Holly Woodbridge Richeson and husband Lauran and their family, niece Haley & Kristen Dora Noffsinger and her family; brothers, Jim Cauley and wife Anna and family & Stratton Cauley and wife Connie and family; granddaughter Vera Rose Henry; grandson Max Henry and the family of her sister Phyllis June Cauley West. She was predeceased by her father Eldred "Tucky" Jewell Cauley and her sister Phyllis June Cauley West.
