

Thomas Clayton Gallamore

March 24, 1961 - September 5, 2015

Thomas Gallamore, 54, of Crawfordville, died September 5, 2015, also known as Tommy, Uncle Tommy & Mr. Tommy. He was born March 24, 1961 in Richmond, Virginia. He graduated Florida State University and worked with the State of Florida for 20 years as a Senior State Analyst. Currently he was a caregiver for several family members. He was a member of Wakulla United Methodist Church. Tommy will be remembered for his giving, caring heart for others. He volunteered at Wakulla United Methodist Church food pantry, Special Olympics, Big Hearted Angels, Wakulla Pre-K, Crawfordville Elementary School and where he saw a need he was there. He was an avid FSU fan, an Eagle Scout, bird watcher and was a coach & a booster member for the Wakulla Soccer team.

Survivors include his wife of nearly 30 years Lorrie Gallamore, 2 daughters Kaitlin Maynard (Joshua) & Kristine Gallamore, mother Anne Gallamore, father & mother in law James & Vernie Hodges, sister in law Sondra Martin, 1 neice, 1 nephew, 2 great nephews, 1 great neice and not to forget his furry grand dogs Chewy, Gizmo, Bailey & Spaz. He was predeceased by his father George Gallamore and brother James Gallamore.

Family will receive friends Thursday, September 10, 2015 from 6:00-7:00 pm at Wakulla United Methodist Church and service will follow at 7:00 pm.

In lieu of flowers donations can be made to Wakulla United Methodist Food Pantry, Wakulla Special Olympics and/or Big Hearted Angels.

Skip Young with Family Funeral Home & Cremation Services is assisting the family with arrangements.
