I loved him more than he ever believed possible...more than he thought he deserved... but I saw the genuine warmth in his eyes when he smiled at me. I loved his smile, the sound of his laughter, and those big arms that made me feel safe...protected. I admired his stoic work ethic...his loyalty...his stubbornness...his love for his children...his morality...his preference for the original Star Trek :)
He was a good man that I'm grateful to have known...and had always missed...even before his passing...and had anticipated a time when I would have the opportunity to make him laugh again...I'm incredibly devastated that I missed the chance.
I'm only now learning of this after so much time has passed...I'm in shock and the grief is still raw but my heart extends to those he loved and I have no doubt he protects you still...

“ The special memories I have of Todd will always bring a smile...If only we could have him back for just a little while. We could sit and talk again just like we use to. Your friendship meant so much and I'm glad I've got 30 years of memories of you to reflect upon. The fact that you are no longer with us will always cause me pain, but you will remain forever in our hearts until we meet again. The most painful goodbyes are the ones that are never said and never explained. I'll never forget your smile and laugh. Especially when we use to eat Krispy Kreme doughnuts on the job site and yours fell in the dirt and you were glad I bought a dozen of them! LOL You will surely be missed, may you rest in peace Todd Stephen Hale. We loved you and always will.

“ I am so saddened to hear about Todd's death. I had the pleasure of knowing Todd for the past 30 years and worked with him on and off job sites for 23 years. Todd and I spent many nights grilling hamburgers, steaks and ribs, talking about the past, present and future. We talked about the good times and the bad times and we has mutual friendship that weathered anything. Todd was a good friend, a good man and a hard worker. I will miss him mucho as he left us way too soon. I will never forget his kindness. May God give him eternal rest and the family the strength to bear the great pain. Rest in peace my friend, see you on the other side. The comfort of having a friend may be gone, but not that of having had one.
