Tribute Wall

“ Wally and I won't ever forget our trip to Palmyra with Bill, Jean and friends. Bill made the trip so much fun. He always found the very best in any given situation. His wit, humor, and insight, along with his dear friendship, will greatly be missed.

“ Bill was always a delightful person. His brogue was instantly charming. When my elderly mother moved to Crawfordville an came to church, Bill came out immediately to greet us. He wanted to know was and when was her birthday. He was 2 years her senior. He wanted to be sure he was still the oldest member in the Ward.

He will be greatly missed.
