“ Dearest PopPop, I will cherish every memory, I will strive to live as a small pillar of the man I remember you to have been. I Love you, i will miss you but will see you again. My fondest memories with you was at age 12 thru 14, just being with you at your house. Talking for hours about the military and the Farm you were raised on. Allowing me to drive to the mall with no Liscense with kristan. All the Christmas mornings we shared, the sunrays and the laughter in the air. From all your infamous sayings like; “Put Your Dukes Up”, or “Im tared, are you feathered too” , and one of my favorites, “give me a bunny hug”. May god bless you in eternity, Until we meet again PopPop. With all my love, your 1st Grandson, Chad Downer

Although we only had 20 short years together, they were memorable. I will never forget the brown cadillac you chauffered Chad and I in. I will miss the "bunny hugs" and the love you showed me from day one. Lastly, I will forever hear your greeting to me "Hey good lookin', what ya got cookin". Rest easy pop pop, see you again.
Love,

“ My Dear Dad..... God must have really loved me a lot to give me the best Dad in the world! Thank you for teaching me, your grandchildren and great grandchildren, by word and deed to love others; keep God in the center of everything, pray, trust and remember He is in control; Family is most important no matter what; treat others as you want to be treated and enjoy life, it passes quickly. You are my Dad, you are my best friend. Your wisdom, your affection, your kindness, your smile, your laughter, many fun times, fond memories and the "bunny hugs" will remain with us always. There aren't words to express all I feel. Keep my spot, in heaven, close to yours, until I see your smiling face and feel your arms holding me, once again. It broke my heart to lose you, but you did not go alone; For part of me went with you, the day God called you home. I will do my best to make you proud and be the person you raised me to be. I Miss You So Much Already..... I Love You Always, Dad. Capri "Pootsie"
